Trivia Answer For December

The First Edition of the Radio Amateurs Handbook was published in November 1926 and there were 5,000 copies printed. (Editor)

1992 N.S.A.R.C. Fox Hunts

On October 11 1992 a hunt was held in the Pickering area, VE3HMG and VE3LNX were the foxes and there were 7 hunters, VE3's RNC, PJJ, AIY, NSE/YRU, SHL UOZ and GTU.

On October 25 1992 a second hunt was held in the same area and this time VE3HMG and VE3LIZ were the foxes and there were 10 hunters with 18 participants VE3's UXL, SHK, CRK, AIY, PYW, EJW, AEQ, NSE, YES/YRU and RCN.

On November 08 1992 there was third hunt and car rally combination, there were three foxes, VE3RCN, VE3BTR, VE3HMG and there were 7 hunters, VE3's RCN, LNX, BEG/YRU, NSE, AIY, AEQ and EJW. All comments on the car rally style hunt were favourable.

On November 22 1992 a fourth and final hunt for the year was held in the same location in the Pickering area with VE3HMG and VE3BTR as the foxes, there were 5 hunters, VE3's RNC, SHK, BEG, AIY and YRU. They are improving their technique because Eric says they were starting to pick the foxes off pretty quick now. (VE3HMG)

It's The Law

It's illegal in Pueblo, Colorado to raise a dandelion or permit one to grow within the city limits, and The city ordinance in Los Angeles prohibits poking a turkey to see how tender it is. (VE3PLM)

Trivia For January

Who was known as a VHF pioneer and QST Associate Editor from 1931 to 1938? (Editor)

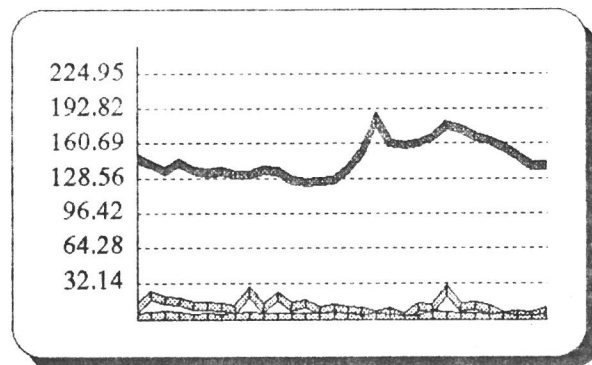

Peter Says

The shortest period of time lies between the minute you put some money away for a rainy day and the unexpected arrival of rain.

AND

Language has three important uses: it expresses thought, conceals thought and takes the places of thought. (VE3PLM)

Work Shop

On Nov. 28th the following hams got together at Oshawa Central Collegiate to work on their RDF DOPPLER units. Fred, VE3TIG; Paul, VE3LHZ; Jim, VE3PLP, Margaret, VE3BNN; Richard, VE3RJB. On hand to make sure that all were progressing smoothly were Eric, VE3HMG and Glen, VE3LIZ. As each person was at a different stage of completion people were able to benefit from the other people's work. It was a positive, enjoyable, experience that will be repeated on

Sat. Jan. 9th 1993 at 9:00 A.M. for anyone that wants a hand assembling their kit. Please contact Fred, VE3TIG if you plan to attend. (VE3TIG)

More Price Increases

Well it seems as the price of mailing a letter is going up again (as if that is really surprising) as if January 1 1993 it will cost 1 cent more to post a letter in Canada and 2 cents to the US, well I guess this is what OUR wondrous leaders we have call cutting back (cutting back into our pockets). (Editor)

Membership List

I have had several people inquiring about when a membership list will be printed, well if all goes fine I plan to publish one in the March bulletin, so I guess all I can say to that at this point in time is if you want to be included in this printing you will have to have your 1993 membership paid. Little Story

Once upon a time there were three men who worked for a large company. The first two had worked for that company for many years. At the time they began working, there were certain minimum requirements that they both met, so they were brought in at the same level. One man was happy to stay where he was. No responsibilities, fair enough salary and benefits, and a job for life. The other man wanted a better job, more pay, more responsibilities, and was willing to work for them. He took college courses on his time off. He was willing to work overtime to get the job done. He earned a high-level management position by doing what needed to be done. He wasn't sure some of the things he did were necessary, but that's what it took to get ahead in that company.

One day these two men were drinking a cup of coffee and talking about how much they enjoyed their positions within the company and the years they had served, when a third man

(remember, this story is about three men) began pounding on the window. He wanted in, but he couldn't meet the minimum requirements. The first two men looked at each other and realised that some of the requirements were a little silly. They decided that it would be good to modify the minimum requirements. They talked it over with the director of personnel, and the changes were made.

The third man was a useful addition to the company. He showed up for work on time. He put in a full day's work. And he was pleasant to work around. One day he was sitting, drinking coffee with the other two men, when he announced that he wanted a better job, more pay, more responsibilities, but that he would not be willing to work for them. He pointed out that since the job requirements for an entry level position had been changed, then the job requirements for the senior management positions could be changed.

This allegory is still in the process of development. I hate to try to predict the future, so I'll stop it now. 73 de Tom, AA6MZ

HUMOUR from WB0QGL

Christmas Social Meeting

For all who missed the December meeting I am afraid you missed out on a very good evening, there was a very large selection of things to nibble on as well as lots of people to socialize with. The turnout was (in my option) the largest of any turn out that the NSARC has had in recent years or since I have been connected with the Radio Club. A big vote of thanks goes out to Velora Gibson, Xxxxxx Xxxxxxxx, Xxxxxxxx Xxxxxxxx and Xxxxxxx ~~Zzzzzzz~~ for making this event another great success. (Editor)

VE3AAF Report

By now, most of the members will know that our net controller has been in the hospital for some time. Roy was originally admitted to the Cottage Hospital in Uxbridge, transferred to an Intensive Care Unit in a Scarboro Hospital and is finally back in the Uxbridge Hospital. When I went to see Roy, the doctor had given him permission to go home for about two hours on Christmas day, but he told me that he doubted that he would feel like making the trip. With all the well wishes that I received for Roy during the last net, I know that I can say "We wish you a speedy recovery, Roy". (VE3LIZ)

House Hold Hint

For sweet smelling closets, fill a nylon stocking with cedar chips.

AND

Wax-coated can candle holders should be put in the freezer for about one hour, then the wax can be peeled off easily.

AND

Clean eyeglasses using a drop of vinegar or vodka on each lens. (Editor)
